public schools in the District will go to their homes this afternoon, not to return to desk and blackboard until January 2. Studying and reciting in the schools to-day will be reduced to a minimum and the last day before the holidays will be devoted as much as possible to merry-making. Christmas carols will be sung poems recited, and a "real good time"

Would Emplate Santa.

President Oyster, at a meeting of the board of education yesterday afternoon, extended wishes for a merry Christmas and happy New Year to all the pupils. a well as all employer of the public officials, teachers, janitors, and other mployes, in as follows:

I wish you can't and all a most happy Christmas and a Joyous New Year. This is the Sixth Christmas to occur under the present school haw, and for many reasons it should be the box. Our schools have been makand for many reasons it should be the best. Our schools have been making, are making, and will continue to make steade and substantial progreas in all directions—in material equipment. In personnel of the professional corps, in courses of study, in methods of teaching and management, and phone all, in spirit. You who have so locally and efficiently meapened with the board of education in its various constructive policies, highly deserve the relaxations and delights of this holiday season. For your own sake, as well as for the sake of the school children who must be seen profit from the happiness of their teachers. I wish you again a merry Christmas and a happy New Yoar.

ANACOSTIA.

At the numerous institutions in Anaesstia, plans are being made for giving the inmates the usual Christmas enter-tainments and festivities. At the Gov-ernment Hospital for the Insane the task of preparing a special dinner for 2,000 inmates is no small matter, and the ones in charge have been busy this week, and will be until next Monday, At the Home for the Aged and Infirm, Blue Plaine, Superintendent Fay is ar-At the Home for the Ased and Infirm, Blue Plains, Superintendent Fay is arranging for a special nicoranime for the inmates, and also to serve a special dinner. At the therman Orphan Asylum and Ruppet Home for the Ased, on Good Hope read, the laddes are taking the active part and will provide the usual good things, through the donations of many preminent washington firms. At the Episcopul Home for Children a tree will be provided, and the presents given them by Santa Claus on Monday morning. The maniagers are receiving a number of donations each day.

The annual visitation of the officers of the Potomac, Grand Army of the Republic to John A. Logan Post, No. 12, of Anacostia, took place last evening in the Masonic Hall, and at the same time the officers for the coming year were elected. The visitors were much pleased with the showing made by the local post, and placed their approval on the records. A. R. Frisble, who has been commander of this post for a number of years past.
